

Dear Nass family,

I hope your holding up well after the tragedy that befell your house the last few months back. Life is full of unexpected things and death is one of them especially at a young age. On behalf of the Misada family, I would like to send my sincere condolence to the Nass family for the loss of your beloved son. Francis was a friend and a brother to us. He brought life and so much fun into the M-LISADA family. Each morning, he'd bring endless smiles to our faces by the little things he did. He was a smart boy with so much to give to this world. He had a great sense of humor and he was someone anyone would wish to have in their lives. When you adopted him as your son, we kept him close to our hearts along with his brother David. Thank you for giving him a home that he'd never forget. I am sure he was such an inspiration to your family, a person with a warm heart and always chasing after his dream. Little did we know, that all the moments we had with him are now memories that we carry in our hearts. Sometimes, life seems complicated and the question that lingers in our hearts is why him at such a tender age. Why Francis the person who had so much to offer? But no one can answer that and we leave it to the hands of the almighty. We will always remember Francis with all our hearts. We will always carry the memories along with us. We continue to pray for him and his family too. May God strengthen David and the rest of the Nass family. Thank you so much for being such a great family to Francis and David. We love you and send sincere condolences to the Nass family. God be with you and strengthen you each day of your lives.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Kabagimu.
